

Jefferson Davis Family Collection Inventory

The Jefferson Davis Family Collection is the largest single collection in the Eleanor S. Brockenbrough Library. Many of the Davis manuscripts came directly from the family by way of former First Lady Varina Howell Davis, who served as a regent of the Museum's Solid South Room in the late 1890s and was active in verifying original White House pieces and gathering Davis family memorabilia. The Davis Family Collection contains the correspondence and ephemera of Jefferson Davis (1808-1889) as well as that of his immediate family: wife Varina Howell Davis (1826-1906), children, especially the youngest daughter, Varina Anne "Winnie" Davis (1864-1898), descendants, and extended family.

The Collection consists of 38 manuscript file boxes of correspondence, one oversize items box, and several bound volumes. The file boxes are divided by sender or recipient:

Boxes 1-2 contain letters written by Jefferson Davis, arranged chronologically
 Boxes 3-24 contain letters sent to Jefferson Davis, arranged alphabetically by last name of sender
 Boxes 25-26 contain letters written by Varina Davis (including those sent to Jefferson Davis), arranged chronologically
 Box 27 contains manuscript notes for and drafts of Varina Davis' Jefferson Davis: A Memoir
 Boxes 28-29 contain correspondence sent to Varina Davis
 Boxes 30-32 contain resolutions of sympathy, tributes, and telegrams upon the death of Jefferson Davis
 Box 33 contains correspondence written by and received by "Winnie" Davis
 Box 33A contains condolence telegrams sent to Varina Davis upon the death of "Winnie" Davis, arranged by state and date
 Box 34 contains correspondence and ephemera of Jefferson Davis, Jr., and Margaret Davis Hayes and her descendants
 Boxes 35-37 contain ephemera related to Jefferson Davis, Varina Davis, and their family

The inventory below is an alphabetized master list of correspondence in the Collection.
